b. Classified material originated by other US agencies or departments [REDACTED]

25X1X7

25X1X7 [REDACTED] will not be disclosed, orally or in writing, without the specific permission of the originator of the information. If a representative of ORR considers the disclosure of such material to be to the net advantage of the US, the matter should be submitted to St/PC for initiation of appropriate means to acquire the approval of the originator.

25X1X7 c. Subject to the limitations of a. and b. above, information within the areas of interest prescribed in the references may be disclosed to [REDACTED] in personal discussion, either verbally or by exhibiting reports or other documents. Should an ORR representative have any doubt as to the propriety of disclosing certain information, he should refer the matter to St/PC for determination of the releasability of the information.

d. No written intelligence or information (whether finished or unfinished) will be delivered by ORR personnel directly to [REDACTED]. Finished intelligence may be released only by OCD and delivery thereof made by the SA/RR. Should a representative of ORR consider that the transmission of certain intelligence or information (finished or unfinished) would be of value to ~~the latter's~~ principals, and to the net advantage of the US, the procedure in such case is as follows:

(1) the approval of the appropriate Area Chief will first be obtained and, thereafter,

(2) the material will be submitted to the SA/RR for review and appropriate transmission.
